

KEEP KIDS ALIVE

The Morris Township Police Department is sponsoring a Keep Kids Alive Drive 25 campaign in the various township neighborhoods. The program is currently under way in the Fairchild neighborhood. Front row, from left, are left are Samantha Quinn, Noel Smith and Clare Mueller, with Billy Smith in front. In the rear are Committeeman Jeff Grayzel, left, and Mayor Scott Rosenbush. Police give residents lawn signs to put out with various slogans to alert drivers to slow down. Reggie Doherty of 30 Sherman Avenue is coordinating the event.

Contact her at reginadoherty@verizon.net. More information can be found on the Keep kids Alive Drive 25 website at www.kkad25.org.

